Conditions of Sale

1. REJECTION OF BIDS. Any bid which is not commensurate with the value of the article offered, or which is merely a nominal or fractional advance, may be rejected by the auctioneer if in his judgment such bid would be likely to affect the sale injuriously.
2. THE BUYER. The highest bidder shall be the buyer, and if any dispute arises between two or more bidders, the auctioneer shall either decide the same or put up for re-sale the lot so in dispute.
3. IDENTIFICATION AND DEPOSIT BY BUYER. The name of the buyer of each lot shall be given immediately on the sale thereof, and when so required, each buyer shall sign a card giving the lot number, amount for which sold, and his or her name and address. ¶ A deposit at the actual time of the sale shall be made of all or such part of the purchase prices as may be required. ¶ If the two foregoing conditions are not complied with, the lot or lots so purchased may at the option of the auctioneer be put up again and re-sold.
4. RISK AFTER PURCHASE. Title passes upon the fall of the auctioneer's hammer, and thereafter the property is at the purchaser's risk, and neither the consignor nor the Association is responsible for the loss of, or any damage to any article by theft, fire, breakage, however occasioned, or any other cause whatsoever.
5. DELIVERY OF PURCHASES. Delivery of any purchases will be made only upon payment of the total amount due for all purchases at the sale.
6. RECEIPTED BILLS. Goods will only be delivered on presentation of a receipted bill. A receipted bill presented by any person will be recognized and honored as an order by the buyer, directing the delivery to the bearer of the goods described thereon. If a receipted bill is lost before delivery of the property has been taken, the buyer should immediately notify the Association of such loss.
7. STORAGE IN DEFAULT OF PROMPT PAYMENT AND CALLING FOR GOODS. Articles not paid for in full and not called for by the purchaser or agent by noon of the day following that of the sale may be turned over by the Association to some carter to be carried to and stored in some warehouse until the time of the delivery therefrom to the purchaser, and the cost of such cartage and storage and any other charges will be charged against the purchaser and the risk of loss or damage occasioned by such removal or storage will be upon the purchaser. ¶ In any instance where the purchase bill has not been paid in full by noon of the day following that of the sale, the Association and the auctioneer reserve the right, any other stipulation in these conditions of sale notwithstanding, in respect to any or all lots included in the purchase bill, at its or his option, either to cancel the sale thereof or to re-sell the same at public or private sale without further notice for the account of the buyer and to hold the buyer responsible for any deficiency and all losses and expenses sustained in so doing.
8. SHIPPING. Shipping, boxing or wrapping of purchases is a business in which the Association is in no wise engaged, but the Association will, however, afford to purchasers every facility for employing at current and reasonable rates carriers and packers; doing so, however, without any assumption of responsibility on its part for the acts and charges of the parties engaged for such service.

9. GUARANTY. The Association exercises great care to catalogue every lot correctly and endeavors therein and also at the actual time of the sale to point out any error, defect or imperfection, but guaranty is not made either by the owner or the Association of the correctness of the description, genuineness, authenticity or condition of any lot and no sale will be set aside on account of any incorrectness, error of cataloguing or imperfection not noted or pointed out. Every lot is sold "as is" and without recourse. ¶ Every lot is on public exhibition one or more days prior to its sale, and the Association will give consideration to the opinion of any trustworthy expert to the effect that any lot has been incorrectly catalogued and in its judgment may thereafter sell the lot as catalogued or make mention of the opinion of such expert, who thereby will become responsible for such damage as might result were his opinion without foundation.
10. RECORDS. The records of the auctioneer and the Association are in all cases to be considered final and the highest bid shall in all cases be accepted by both buyer and seller as the value against which all claims for losses or damage shall lie.
11. BUYING ON ORDER. Buying or bidding by the Association for responsible parties on orders transmitted to it by mail, telegraph, or telephone, if conditions permit, will be faithfully attended to without charge of commission. Any purchases so made will be subject to the foregoing conditions of sale, except that, in the event of a purchase of a lot of one or more books by or for a purchaser who has not through himself or his agent been present at the exhibition or sale, the Association will permit such lot to be returned within ten days from the date of sale, and the purchase money will be refunded, if the lot differs from its catalogue description. ¶ Orders for execution by the Association should be given with such clearness as to leave no room for misunderstanding. Not only should the lot number be given, but also the title, and bids should be stated to be so much for the lot, and when the lot consists of one or more volumes of books or objects of art, the bid per volume or piece should also be stated. If the one transmitting the order is unknown to the Association, a deposit must be sent or reference submitted. Shipping directions should also be given.

FOREWORD

IN presenting for dispersal by public sale the last important group of works belonging to the famous John Quinn Collection, which is generally conceded to be an outstanding collection of modern and ultra-modern art both in America and Europe, the American Art Association is well aware of the little need of a detailed introduction of its founder to their art patrons. The late John Quinn was one of the foremost bank lawyers of the past decade, combining with his brilliant professional gifts a discriminating aesthetic sense of extraordinary power. He was probably the most courageous patron of the arts of his time—this in the literal sense of the phrase, since to patronize anything but the living is not to be a patron but a collector. Mr. Quinn had gathered modern sculpture and paintings on a scale unprecedented and with a taste for those provided with the substance of genius. A whole chapter might be devoted to his personal relationships with the artists from whom he purchased so many of these works, some of whom have been regarded as somewhat revolutionary by the academicians, but unquestionably they are the artists who represent the times.

The exhibition will afford a glimpse of one of the most admirable selections of modern painting and sculpture, and a rare opportunity for the collector who cares to enjoy the art of today; an art, furthermore, that is a reaction from cold, affected classicism and false idealism.

A summary of the American artists is as follows: Arthur B. Davies, Maurice B. Prendergast, Ernest Lawson, Walt Kuhn, George Hart, Charles Sheeler, Morton L. Schamberg, Marsden Hartley, S. Macdonald Wright, Max Weber, and the sculptor, Jacob Epstein. The French are represented by Henri Matisse, André Derain, Paul Gauguin, Puvis de Chavannes, Maurice de Vlaminck, Robert Delaunay, Jacques Villon, Alexandre Blanchet, Albert Gleizes, Jean Metzinger, Gino Severini, Lucien Pissarro, Auguste Chabaud, Paul Lafitte, and two sculptors, the late Raymond Duchamp-Villon and Henri Gaudier-Brzeska. The British by Augustus John and his sister, Gwen John, Charles Conder, Charles H. Shannon, Wyndham Lewis, Edward Wadsworth, J. D. Innes, Derwent Lees, C. R. W. Nevinson, John S. Currie, Spencer F. Gore, David Bomberg and Geoffrey Nelson. Four distinctly Irish painters are represented: George W. Russell ("A. E."), the late Nathaniel Hone, the late John Butler Yeats, and Jack B. Yeats, the younger son of John Butler Yeats. All are represented at their best and in their various phases, from luminaristic impressionism to post-impressionism, cubism and vorticism. If, on viewing this collection and upon a survey of the progress of civilization with its reflection to art, we can still admire the amazing realism of the Van Dycks, the intellect and power of Michelangelo, the greatness of Rembrandt, the mysticism of Corot, and the vital attempts of the moderns and ultra-moderns to portray human emotions, either abstract or concrete, of the vortiginous close to the nineteenth century, we may be said to have achieved an ideal understanding of art.

It is the suggestiveness to spirit and imagination that is the keynote of this collection. Matter is impermanent; the forms in which it appears to the eye are temporary. These present masters have striven to get away as far as possible from the accidents of impermanent form. In their attempts to do so they have simplified, generalized and conventionalized matter. Briefly, their longing is for the ultimate, the universal. While the classicists and academicians strive to give perfection of form so that, through a series of means, they may express an ideal of physical perfection, the modern reaches his ideal through the abstract with a perfection of beautiful lines, patterns and colors.

JEAN METZINGER

French: Contemporary

120. 362. LA FUMEUSE. Suggesting a plastic, prismatic view of a lady seated at a table, wearing a dark red hat with a brilliant blue osprey, and smoking a cigarette. Upon the table, in geometric abstraction, are a goblet of wine, a fan and box of cigarettes. Strongly portrayed with intense color contrasts. Signed at lower left, METZINGER.

Height, 36 inches; width, 26 inches

ERNEST LAWSON, N. A.

American: 1873—

600. 364. MORRIS HEIGHTS. Vaporous view of a pellucid waterway, with a gaily colored tug; on the far bank, ascending country wooded with slender beeches and dotted with dwellings, and large buildings silhouetted against the sky. Massed in the foreground are bulrushes. Signed at lower left, E. LAWSON.

Height, 40 inches; length, 50 inches

Purchased from the artist

ALBERT GLEIZES

French: Contemporary

35. 365. WOMEN AT A WINDOW. Cubistic portrayal of two women seated at a latticed window facing on a wooded courtyard. Dexterously executed with richly laid colors. Signed at lower left, ALB. GLEIZES, and dated 1914.

Height, 45 inches; length, 58 inches

Purchased from the artist

PIERRE PUVIS DE CHAVANNES

French: 1824—1898

8000. 366. BEHEADING OF JOHN THE BAPTIST. The saintly figure with a luminous nebula is depicted kneeling before a massive fig tree, in the flagged courtyard, draped with the proverbial sheepskin: an expression of devout resignation, though the hands are taut. To the left the powerful headsman with sword raised, is about to strike the deathly blow; to the right the seemingly unobserved figure of Salome in flowing dark robes, holding the charger to receive the head. Signed at lower right, PUVIS DE CHAVANNES, and dated 1869.

Height, 4 feet; length, 5 feet 4 inches

Note: As an example of easel-picture from this master's brush, it has been considered the finest in America. The portrait of the woman, too tender for the true Herodias, is that of the Princess Cantacuzene, who later became the wife of the painter.

Exhibited at the Paris Salon, 1870

Exhibited at the Universal Exposition, Paris, 1889

Exhibited at International Exhibition of Modern Art, New York, 1913

On loan and exhibited at the Metropolitan Museum of Art, New York, from 1915 until its removal to the American Art Galleries

AUGUSTUS E. JOHN, R. A.

British: 1879—

370. THE MUMPERS [1912]. In the background are symmetrically disposed olive trees outlined before a fine blue sky hung with lavender-tinted clouds and a ribbon of low-lying mountains. In the foreground a strip of waste land fenced with palings, the encampment of a nomadic people, some of whom are arranged around the glowing embers of a campfire emitting a volume of dense "plastic" smoke: a kneeling figure in a rose-colored dress, her head banded by a white kerchief, preparing a meal; two bearded men, the gaunt figure with flame-red hair holding a child; an elderly woman and two youthful figures. At the left is a group, dominated by the virile figure turned from the spectator, wearing a greenish-blue frock and brilliant crimson shawl, with a child in her arms. To complete this lucid and logically linked composition are a sleeping youth, a donkey and a dog.

Height, 9 feet; length, 18 feet

Note: An exceptionally important work of this master, powerfully drawn and essentially modern in spirit, reflecting an influence of Puvis de Chavannes, combined with a pellucid rendering of color values that is quite Manetesque.

Purchased from the artist, 1912

Exhibited at the New English Art Club, London, 1912

Exhibited at the Coffee House Club, New York, 1916

CHARLES H. SHANNON, A.R.A.

British: Contemporary

350. 371. PORTRAIT OF LILAH McCARTHY [MRS. GRANVILLE BARKER]. The brilliant actress is seated in deep contemplation, wearing the hooped, décolleté costume and plumed headdress of the character of Doña Ana in Shaw's "Man and Superman," in the act usually omitted from the acting version; by her side is a small table with her personal objects upon it, and a reflecting mirror. The background of grayish-green with a mysterious sense of space rendered in the Velasquesque manner with pigments of subdued richness. Signed at lower right, CHARLES SHANNON, and dated 1907.

Height, 6 feet 4 inches; length, 3 feet 11 inches

Purchased from the artist

On loan and exhibited at the Metropolitan Museum of Art, New York, from 1915 until its removal to the American Art Galleries

30. 374. ROTTERDAM. A vorticist conception of the harbor of Rotterdam, with brilliantly colored funnels of moored ships, depicted in the abstract, in strong blues, reds and black and white. Signed at lower right, E. WADSWORTH, and dated 1914; and at back, E. WADSWORTH.

Height, 50 inches; length, 40 inches

Purchased from the artist

WALT KUHN

American: Contemporary

35. 375. MAN AND SEA BEACH. An impression: a sandy beach with many people engaged at various pursuits. Dominating the curious composition are two figures, one in peacock-green, the other crimson, standing by a beach parasol; at the right a horse and above a diving figure, and a vista of blue sea; under a shaded sky. Signed at lower left, WALT KUHN.

Height, 7 feet; length, 10 feet

Exhibited at the Panama-Pacific International Exposition, San Francisco, California, 1916

ARTHUR B. DAVIES

American: 1862—

250. 376. DANCERS. A lyrical emotion, portrayed with a flow of rhythmic line and the logic of space relationship, in a color scheme at once gorgeous and fascinating. Depicting harlequinade figures enveloped in whirling drapery, gracefully dancing. A superb representation of this master's classic modernism. Signed at lower left, A. B. DAVIES.

Height, 7 feet; length, 12 feet 6 inches

PAUL GAUGUIN

French: 1848—1903

180. 378. DECORATED WOOD CEILING. In the central panel two conventionalized swans are suggested mirrored in similar forms to balance the simple composition, before a light brown background, with a deep leaf-green border, on which are portrayed primitive fruits in rather barbaric colors. Inscribed with the satire: Oni soie ki mâle y panse.

Height, 9 feet 3 inches; length, 12 feet 8½ inches

Note: A unique and highly interesting souvenir of Gauguin. It was painted about 1888 or 1889, at the inn where the artist lodged during his famous sojourn in Pont-Aven, Brittany, France.

KAKEMONO

Wu-tao-tze: T'ang Dynasty

375. 379. WINTER LANDSCAPE AND GEESE BY NIGHT. Depicting in the foreground two graceful geese, the texture of the feathers perfectly indicated with hardly a line or shade of internal modeling, standing by a snow-laden willow tree with two perched snow-birds, and water plants; in the background a mystic portrayal of water. Signed on the reverse at upper right.

MAURICE B. PRENDERGAST

1400. 380. PROMENADE. A vivid work of impressionistic-realism, portraying in the foreground a promenade with two fruiting trees, and animated with child figures, two dogs and a ridden donkey. Centring the composition is a bench with a seated child in naturalistic pose; at the left a tall figure carrying a sunshade. A background of ultramarine sea flecked with green, and two sailing boats. A descriptive personal interpretation of movement, in a pageant of fine color, rendered essentially in the unique manner of this master. Signed at lower right, PRENDERGAST.

Height, 6 feet 6 inches; length, 11 feet

Exhibited at the Panama-Pacific International Exposition, San Francisco, California, 1916

APPRAISALS FOR
UNITED STATES & STATE TAX
INSURANCE & OTHER PURPOSES
CATALOGUES OF PRIVATE COLLECTIONS

THE American Art Association, Inc. will furnish appraisements, made by experts under its direct supervision, of art and literary property and all personal effects, in the settlement of estates, for inheritance tax, insurance and other purposes.

¶ The Association is prepared to supplement this appraisal work by making catalogues of private libraries, of the contents of homes or of entire estates, such catalogues to be modeled after the fine and intelligently produced sales' catalogues of the Association. ¶ Upon request the Association will furnish the names of many trust and insurance companies, executors, administrators, trustees, attorneys and private individuals for whom the Association has made appraisements which not only have been entirely satisfactory to them, but have been accepted by the United States Estate Tax Bureau, the State Tax Commission and others in interest.
